Serving You in Your Community

Senior Center Updates July 2026

Did you know? The Turtle Creek Senior Center delivers an average of 4,600 Meals on Wheels monthly to homebound residents. The delivery area serves 21 surrounding communities near Turtle Creek. The meals are delivered three times a week by staff and dedicated volunteers.

The Turtle Creek Senior Center would like to give a big “thank you” to the Wilkins Elks for their kind donation to the Meals on Wheels program. With their donation, a new freezer was purchased to store meals and supplies for the program.

If you are interested in volunteering for the Meals on Wheels program, please contact the Turtle Creek Senior Center at 412-824-6880.

Tips for Responsible Tech Disposal

Monday, July 27th at 10:30am

As technology becomes more and more important, we all have a role to play in the growing e-waste problem. The class will go over ways like repairing, trading in, selling, or donating devices before recycling. You'll also learn how to find responsible, certified recycling options. Most importantly, we'll cover the essential steps to prep devices before they leave your hands so that your data and privacy is protected.
